From Principal's Desk

Hotel Management has become the most alluring faculty for the employment opportunities and career scope. In the context of Nepal lots of five star hotels are coming up. Moreover, in places like Middle East, Oriental Asian Countries, Australia, Europe and America too have numerous scope for the hotel management graduates. IST College has been producing quality work force in the hospitality field for past 14 years. With the constant suggestions about the need of short term courses, IST College maintaining the standards and benchmark in hospitality education have launched the IST VOCATIONAL as our short term courses unit.

Highly qualified instructors and state of the art facilities are our features. We have introduced same level of commitment for the short term courses as well. The affiliation with the CTEVT and Tourism School Salzburg have really given the courses an extra advantage over the courses offered in various training institutes of Nepal. Get trained in our excellent facilities and grab outstanding hospitality jobs worldwide.

Introduction

IST Vocational is the subsidiary of IST College for short term training courses on hotel departments. The need of quality work force in hospitality industry is in abundance. Those deprived of getting formal academic degree or those seeking for specialization in one particular department will find vocational courses very useful. Green lush environment and state of art facilities make training in IST an amazing learning experience.

Bartending

Bartending course allows students to learn more than 100 cocktails and mocktails preparation. Bar Inventory, controlling and service techniques are taught to make students able to work as Bartender in any hotel or restaurant.

Food Production

Kitchen course at IST Vocational is divided into fundamental and advanced. For the existing workers to get official academic certificate in-service training is conducted. Chinese, Continental, Oriental, Indian, Fast Food and Customized training courses are available.

Flaring

Flaring course is divided into two categories. Exhibition flaring and Working flaring are taught. After the course students will be able to showcase the flaring techniques while working in bar or during various flaring competitions.

Barista

Barista course is the most popular short term course these days. Highly qualified barista exhibitionist and instructors will instruct the students. The students will be able to prepare all the coffee varieties and arts. They will be able to work as barista in café across the globe.

Bakery

Bakery course is very modern and highly standardized for the first time in Nepal at vocational institute. Foreign instructors and local experts will teach the students. From commercial bakery to home bakery students can choose the courses as per their needs.
