MESSAGE FROM DEAN

We are pleased to provide affiliation to International School of Tourism and Hotel Management of Nepal (IST Nepal) to conduct various educational programs related to Tourism and Hotel Management in Nepal.

Salzburg University of Applied Sciences has been regularly sending its experts and faculties to IST Nepal to conduct guest lectures, special trainings and semester examinations and we will continue to do so in future.

Besides the certification of the affiliated programs, FHS will issue a diploma supplement including the detail course content as well as ECTS credit points according to European educational law. This will be helpful in accreditation at international universities.

Both IST Nepal and Salzburg University of Applied Sciences have agreed to implement a Quality Management System including web-based annual evaluation. On the other hand, Austrian Experts will monitor the course content and structure, and participate in the final examination. This effort will ensure the quality of the students as per international standards.

Based on the performance of the IST till date, I am confident that it will be able to produce high quality hospitality professionals to cater to the needs of tourism industry in Nepal as well as abroad.

I wish IST every success in future.

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL OF TOURISM AND HOTEL MANAGEMENT

International School of Tourism and Hotel Management (IST) was established in the year 2003 with an objective to produce world class human resources to cater to the overwhelming need of the hospitality industry by offering various academic degrees and training packages as per the international standard.

Affiliated to Salzburg University of Applied Sciences (FHS), Austral, IST aims at developing practical, managerial and excellent communication skills by providing each individual student with the know how of a successful career in hospitality industry. It is a centre for excellence in hospitality education providing an enterprising and stimulating environment in which the students can learn and develop their full potential. The structure of the academic program achieves this by combining management theory with practical experiences ensuring an international approach to teaching.

Various programs offered by IST is approved by Ministry of Education and Sports of Nepal Government to conduct different courses ranging from Diploma FHS Diploma courses in hospitality. Since its inception it has established cooperation with numerous universities in Nepal, Singapore, Austria, Australia, United Kingdom and United States of America. Likewise, FHS and Tribhuvan University of Nepal have already entered into the bilateral agreement to promote faculty and student exchange, joint research program and accreditation to each other's degree.

IST is also a suffix, which means a person with deep knowledge, practical exposure and appropriate attitude in the particular discipline. Hence, IST aims to add "ist" to its students and prepare professionals to become leading managers in the various tourism and hospitality outlets.

IST has a very good team of faculty comprising both academicians and working professionals. The contribution of the renowned personalities such as promoters, visiting faculties, flying faculties and visiting entrepreneurs in the past years has provided strengths and values to the school.

IST offers customized and fast track programs to provide students maximum flexibility and opportunity for progression. The successful candidates of Diploma program can also pursue their top-up to FHS Diploma and Master's Degree subsequently in Nepal as well as in abroad.

IST has strong emphasis on both academic and practical exposure of its students and has established association with few hospitality outlets such as restaurants, hotels, clubs, and event management companies so that the students have access to these outlets in order to develop their practical exposure.

TEACHING LEARNING METHODOLOGY

Instructional methods include lectures, demonstrations, labs, one on one tutorial and experiential learning component. Except for field trips, all instruction is conducted in a classroom or in a lab setting. Students will also be given an opportunity to present seminar papers to develop their personal, social, technical, analytical and managerial skills.

Problem-Based Learning (PBL) is also used as an application strategy to encourage the students to participate actively in the learning process. It is an instructional method that challenges students to "learn to learn," working cooperatively in groups in order to seek solutions to real world problems. These problems are used to engage students' curiosity and to initiate in learning the subject matter. PBL prepares students to think critically and analytically to find solutions and to use the appropriate learning resources.

STUDENTS SPEAK

Personality development in IST

As we say that personality is the stable set of personal characteristics, it defines an individual. It is the totality of one's character and qualities, behaviors and social relationship, thoughts and feelings which makes a person unique. A person having personality disorder can damage one's life and interpersonal relationships. Hence, it is very important to acquire personality development. Being a student of hospitality field I have learned the significance of personality development.

I feel much honored to be part of IST family since two years. Till now IST has helped me a lot to gain knowledge as well as personality development and made me a confident person. Before, I was a very diffident person. I used to feel very anxious to face new people but IST helped me to oppose such feelings. Every workshop classes made me strong enough to face in front of mass and also my presentation skills were flourished. I am sure, it will help me to develop my professionalism as well as lead a successful career.

As we know that good teachers know how to bring out the best in students, teachers of IST helped the students to strengthen their weakness and develop positive attitude in them. With every group work, I learned to tackle problems and make proper decisions. IST didn't only emphasize the students to bring good marks but also involve the students in extracurricular activities. Compulsory grooming also make the students to be confident about their physical appearances. IST motivates the students to focus in practical trainings but not only in theory bases. Every students can assure themselves that they can make a successful career with every knowledge of personality development given by IST.

IST has made me believe in saying "Positive expectations are the mark of superior quality". To be confident in what you are and truly accept who you are is what I learned. I have always felt interested to learn new aspects of personality development in IST. In future, I will be able to reflect my good personality towards my career. I heartily thank IST for boosting up my traits and giving me such a pleasant environment which helped me to develop my personality.

Importance of Internship in Hospitality Education

It is my great honor to be a part of IST, a renowned destination for hospitality education. It is a place where one can develop their self confidence, communication skills and personality. After joining IST I was able to judge and build myself and now I can see a path for my bright career in upcoming days and I am proud to be an ISTian. As per our 3 years course, we have an internship program in the final year which includes 5th and 6th semester. Over a decade, it has been a culture of IST to send their students for internship across the globe such as China, Malaysia, Dubai, India and in Nepal as internship is the indispensable part of hospitality education.

An internship program serves as an opportunity to relate the college-obtained theory to practical work. Internships are important to the hospitality industry as they offer a hands-on learning curve which, in turn, produces more effective employees. We believe that a combination of academic and real-world learning produces the best results. Getting the balance right enables graduates to step straight into a responsible position and start work immediately at a professional level. Internships provide an effective marker as to whether potential employees meet the high standards expected from the industry. In the market today this is especially important, with more specialized knowledge being required to retain that competitive edge.

Today, guests are better and more informed. Employees always need to be one step ahead in terms of knowledge, skills, innovation. After a whole one year of internship students will be able to face any of the challenging works of the hotel and also can plan about their upcoming future. While in internship he/she may know about each departments and study about it which helps them in choosing their working department as their interest. Internship teaches the students, how hotelier's work and how punctual a hotelier should be. After completion of internship students will be able to manage a proper time and be more active than before which fast tracks the students in right directions. In IST we have a compulsory internship as part of our degree program which is helping us to an easy way to employment and creating future industry leaders.

IST – A Life Changing Opportunity

It is very important to lay a very strong foundation before we build a house. In the same way, we need to step on the first step of a staircase to reach on the top. Taking this fact into account, I was determined to pursue my career in hospitality industry. Studying IDHM in IST has been one of the best decision I have made in my life. I am glad that I chose IST for my +2 level studies. We not only study but, we learn in IST.

IST offers comprehensive study of the departments and functions of hotels including basic operating principles and concepts. Besides theoretical knowledge IST puts emphasis on practical aspect of learning which is very essential. IST also teaches its students to be well-groomed, well-disciplined and well-mannered which are also the key factors to be successful in hospitality industry.

With the opportunity of a professional internship IST strengthens the practical knowledge of its students and students acquire actual work experience. Such exposure always plays vital role to enhance the skills of students. IDHM degree of IST provides a solid academic base, technical and intellectual background that enables its students to pursue higher studies in hotel management. To be a good hotelier knowledge of every part of hospitality industry is very crucial and essential.

IST provides specialized subjects related to all sectors of hospitality industry in the +2 Level itself unlike other institutions who only teach few modules in one subject. Those subjects are supervised by highly skilled and industry experienced professionals. IST gives us creative and interesting assignments rather than prescribed and boring ones. This sharpens the brain and builds confidence of the student.

I can proudly say that by choosing IST I have built the best foundation for my upcoming career in hospitality industry. I want to continue my further studies in IST and graduate from here with honors in the Bachelor's level as well. IST has built up my confidence level and enhanced my overall development and personality to a great extent. Studying in IST made my everyday a new day to learn something extra. I thank all my teachers who always support me guide me to explore myself, my ideas and my imagination.

Intermediate Studies – A Foundation for Bachelor's Degree

The experience in IST was incredible. It has had an enormous impact on me in many ways, connecting myself with the people and events far beyond my formerly limited experience. It was surely a wonderful experience on multiple levels to be a part of this institute and learn so much which I was totally unfamiliar with. It did challenge and expand me socially as well as intellectually.

The decision I made to pursue my further studies in IST was one of the best since it transformed me in a way, none other colleges could ever have. With the provision of career focused curriculum that enhances not only theory knowledge but also practical classes is what makes IST different than the others. Each student in IST is competent and qualified and acquires knowledge and spirit of service with dedication. Dating back to the year of its establishment, it has produced a lot of graduates working in different hospitality outlets all round the globe. They are confident, has an experimental knowledge and moreover, a successful individuals. Nepal is in the verge of development and we youngsters play a vital role in its future build up. Thus, colleges like IST should be looked upon as it gives rise to service minded, dedicated and committed youths. IST has given chance to absorb knowledge from all those around me. We had access to incredible faculty who were able to give much to the experience and share their own insights. Before joining IST, I was unaware and had little knowledge in this field of hospitality but IST exposed me to various tourism and hospitality outlets, etiquette, manners, service sequences which helped me build more interest in this field. The most fascinating part in IST is its internship program. As we all know, internship is the pathway to the career and only IST makes you capable and ready for internship in IDHM level.

At last, I'd like to express my gratitude towards IST and its faculty members for nurturing me and changing me to a better skillful person. It surely taught me essential lessons for life to set goals. Today I'm not only educated but also skilled, all thanks to IST. It was a great privilege to be associated with IST which guided me throughout my journey and helped me explore myself. Lastly, I'd like to extend my best wishes to all the upcoming intakes.

INTERNSHIP AND JOB PLACEMENT

IST has been offering internship facility to all of its students and more than 80% of its students are doing internship in countries like China, Dubai, Malaysia, India and Nepal. Since the very beginning IST has been focusing in sending its students for abroad internship so that they get international exposure on the hotel operations. In this endeavor, at the moment, more than 25 students are doing their internship in Genting Highlands, Hotel Istana, The Danua Langkawi and Rebek Island Resort in Malaysia. Similarly some students are doing internship in Vivanta by Taj, Kerala, Vivanta by Taj - Kovalam, The Gateway Hotel Beach Road Calicut and Vivanta by Taj - Trivandrum, Kerala in India. Likewise, 135 students are going through one year internship in hotels like The Westin, Sofitel, Ritz Carlton, InterContinental, Gloria Plaza, Howard Johnson and Holiday Inn in Sanya, China. Likewise, 28 students are undergoing one year internship program in Meydan Hotels & Hospitality, Dubai. It is worthwhile to mention that not only the management of these hotels are interested to add more numbers but other prestigious brands are also showing their interest to take IST interns. The students are provided with an excellent opportunity to interact with the guests in different departments such as Front Office, Housekeeping, F&B Service and Production. Under the supervision of the management the students are involved in the entire guest cycle from check in to check out. So as its slogan says, "Your career starts from here", IST has dedicated itself not only to provide international degree to its pupils but also to shape their career in the relevant field.

WHY YOU SHOULD CHOOSE IST?

Vision

To be a centre for excellence in hospitality education in Nepal providing an enterprising and stimulating environment in which students can learn and develop their full potential.

Mission Statement

Produce the world class human resource to cater to the overwhelming need of the hospitality industries by offering various academic degrees by providing an educational environment that emphasizes critical thinking and decision making, reflection and creativity. Cultivate and nurture a learning environment that fosters an ethical, respectful, and culturally competent approach to customer service and with other hospitality partners. Respond to community needs through a variety of means, including collaboration with organizations and businesses. Develop practical, managerial and excellent communication skills by providing each individual student with the know how of a successful career in hospitality industry.

Goal

To achieve its vision and mission by combining management theory with practical experiences in the field of tourism and hospitality ensuring an international teaching approach.

1

Well Crafted Internship

Understanding the fact that internship being the integral part of the hospitality education, IST not only provides the on campus educational facility but also provides an excellent platform for its students through well crafted internship opportunity in five star deluxe properties in countries like China, Dubai, Malaysia, India, Nepal and many more. This exposure provides the students with the overview of the world hospitality trend, the latest innovation and about tradition and culture of different nationality which facilitate them to adjust in any situation.

Personality Development

In IST students not only learn the specified subjects that are enlisted in the course structure but also they learn about the basics of life – life skills. Positive attitude, impeccable grooming, open mindedness are the vital component in today's competitive world and these qualities will have a long lasting effect on the young professional's mind and behavior. The fact that skills could be learnt at any juncture of life but having positive attitude is extremely essential and this is well developed among all IST graduates. Doing job in the best possible manner is well inculcated in ISTians mind throughout the college time and they display the outstanding behavior in their job. That is why ISTians are sought after in the industry.

Socially Responsible Citizens

At IST students are encouraged not only to get committed in the academics but also to support the less fortunate citizens of the locality. In this effort the students themselves organize events such as a Blood Donation Drive, Program in Balmandir (orphanage) and in Old Age Home. By organizing such events the students learn the hardship of people and how one can be contented by helping others.

Highly Professional Team

At IST we have a true group of professionals with us. The young and dynamic group is always seeking to bring out the best from the students. Their untiring commitment in adhering to the standards of IST is so motivating. They do not seek any praise for their work but their skill and dedication is enormous. They spend many extra hours over and above their duty timing just to make sure to provide extra help to each student.

Career path to date: I started my work in different non-hospitality sector before I completed my undergraduate. During my Internship in The Ritz-Carlton, Sanya, I came to know about the real hospitality where I got refined in various departments of Food and Beverage. With culture I learned in past experience helped me create better future in The Ritz-Carlton, Macau.

About IST: I would like to show gratitude to the Team of IST College for creating such an environment of knowledge, wisdom, where I could learn, share and enormously build myself as an hospitality professional. With vast knowledge I gained through different course of study and building my foundation through internship, IST has and is building first-class manpowers for future of hospitality.
