

Sociology Optional Foundation Classes- 2020 (Batch-2)

Starts 04th November 2019 | Offline & Online

Don't know when would the revolution (Karl Marx) materialize, but we at ForumIAS have envisioned a revolution in the teaching methodology for Sociology Optional by introducing visual presentations like documentaries, cartoons and movies to explain the Sociological Concepts and Theories.

- Intensive discussion on concepts and theories with relevant examples from everyday life and newspapers. Such examples will help you to not just learn but live the concepts.
- Interactive methodology with huge emphasis on discussions and “Q and A sessions” will transcend typical teacher-student relationship.
- Inter-syllabus discussion: Integrated study of both paper 1 and 2 to broaden the understanding beyond the typical boundaries of any one paper.
- Intra-syllabus discussion: Holistic approach will be emphasized upon in order to connect different units of the paper with each other.
- Explanation of jargons in a lucid language.
- High focus on developing sociological perspective which can help you to tackle any dynamic and contemporary question.
- Discussion on previous year papers simultaneously with the classroom lectures.
- The whole program to be aided by test series and all-round mentorship to maximize your score in sociology.
- Limited batch size to ensure focus on each and every student. Admission on first come first serve basis.
- Study material derived from multiple relevant sources concise into one single handout, hand curated by the faculty will be additionally provided.
