SHOPPING

Perak's thriving cottage industry can be mainly found in Kuala Kangsar, focusing on traditional crafts. The state's most popular handicraft is the labu sayong, a unique gourd-shaped receptacle made from clay, with Kampung Sayong in Kuala Kangsar being its main producer. Other popular handcrafted items include batik, earthenware, tekat (golden-thread embroidery), bamboo carvings and souvenirs made from seashells. The best places to find a wide range of traditional handicrafts are Enggor Handicraft Centre and Pulau Tiga Handicraft Centre. Ipoh has several shopping malls, the biggest being Ipoh Parade and Kinta City Shopping Complex. Night markets such as Gerbang Malam near the Birch Clock Tower are perfect hunting grounds for great bargains.

DINING

lpoh is a well-known centre for Chinese cuisine. The popular ones include Sar Hor Fun, Hor Hee, Dim Sum and Hainanese Chicken Rice. Rendang Tok, a Malay dish unique to Perak, is also popular. The best places to sample Perak's local specialities are Golden Point Food Court, Tasik Raban, MBI Terrace, Stadium Food Court, Leaning Tower Food Court and Woolley Food City. Other local favourites include Menglembu groundnuts, Kacang Puteh Buntong, (mixed nuts), Tambun pomelos, Tanjung Malim Pau (Chinese steamed buns), Kampar Chicken Biscuits and the hugely popular Ipoh White Coffee.

GETTING THERE

lpoh is situated about 165km from Penang and 205km or approximately 21/2 hours' drive from Kuala Lumpur. Airconditioned shuttle services to Ipoh are available from KLIA as well as Hentian Duta and Terminal Bersepadu Selatan in KL. Keretapi Tanah Melayu Berhad (KTMB) provides rail services to all major town in Perak, namely Sungkai, Batu Gajah, Ipoh, Kuala Kangsar and Taiping. High-speed Electric Train Services (ETS) also provides daily services between KL Sentral and Ipoh.

GA GETTING AROUND

Buses, taxis and e-hailing services are readily available around lpoh. Taxis can be found at the city's bus stations, hotels and shopping complexes. To reach other towns in Perak, outstation buses are available at Meru Raya Terminal in Ipoh. Alternatively, you can also rent a car and explore the state at your own pace.

MALAYSIA

Situated in the heart of Southeast Asia, Malaysia is a vibrant destination with a diversity of cultures and traditions. This tropical paradise boasts pristine jungles and verdant national parks that are teeming with numerous species of birds and wildlife. Malaysia's sundrenched islands and beaches are home to a stunning range of marine life. Its natural wealth is complemented by magnificent modern landmarks and heritage buildings. There is something to charm every visitor, be it a history-lover, nature-enthusiast, sun-seeker or an avid shopper. Explore the length and breadth of the country to discover the many attractions of Malaysia!

Perak

Perak, meaning 'silver' in Malay, was once a wealthy tin-mining state and is believed to have derived its name from the silvery tin-ore deposits that could be found in abundance here in the past. Also known as 'The Land of Grace', Perak greets visitors with a wealth of unique attractions and cultures. Among the state's delightful cornucopia of wonders are intriguing cave temples, the country's oldest museum, Malaysia's very own Leaning Tower and the country's first night safari. Its capital city is Ipoh, the City of Bougainvillea.
