2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on the website and communicated to teachers and students.

It is mandatory for the admission committee members to hold an interactive session with the newly enrolled students, apprising them about New Education Policy guidelines, as relates to the selection of the subjects. For example, presently as per the NEP 2.0, an undergraduate students have to undertake 7 courses: 3 Discipline specific courses, as core subjects, 1 each General elective, Ability enhancement course, skill enhancement course, and value-added course. The choice of these courses is made available to him/her at the start of the admission. Further, the select admission committees, to guide the students in the precise selection of the subjects /courses of his/her.

Further, before the start of the academic or teaching session, the department head and the faculty holds a Student Induction Programme with the fresh entrants, apprising them of the details of the syllabi per course, of the facilities available with the department, and how best to exploit the same. The students are also advised to go through the programme and course outcomes of all the programmes posted in the college website.
