NSS PRE-REPUBLIC DAY CAMP 2024 REPORT (10th – 19th November 2024), Venue: BIT, Patna

The NSS Pre-Republic Day Camp 2024 was held at BIT, Patna, from 10th to 19th November 2024. Participants from six states—Uttarakhand, Bihar, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, Uttar Pradesh, and Madhya Pradesh—joined hands to experience a blend of culture, discipline, and camaraderie. Representing Uttarakhand, a team of 16 members, led by Dr. Deepa Singh from MBPG Government College, Haldwani, participated enthusiastically. The team included Jasleen Kaur, Khushi Kuntal, Ravina, Kiran Bisht, Mani, Nandani Gupta, Himali Paneru, Priyanka Rajwade, Rahul Kantipal, Kundan Bisht, Anurag Panwar, Anushuman, Himanshu Negi, Pamit Mahil, and Anuj Suyal.

The camp began on 10th November 2024 with a serene yoga session at 5 AM, setting the tone for the days ahead. Later, the inauguration ceremony was a grand affair where participants dressed in traditional attire reflected India's cultural diversity. Dignitaries such as Shri Girdhar Upadhyay, Dr. Prem Lata Singh, Dr. Sanjeev Chaurasia, Col. Kamesh Kumar, and Prof. Shridhar Kumar graced the occasion, inspiring the participants to embrace the values of the NSS. The second day started with another early morning yoga session, followed by rigorous drill practice. Participants worked on their coordination and synchronization, which formed the backbone of the parade. The academic session, led by Retd. IAS Officer Om Prakash Yadav, was enlightening, focusing on leadership and service. The day concluded with a lively cultural evening, where all states performed and showcased their vibrant traditions and artistic expressions.

On the third day, the structured routine of yoga and drill practice continued. The academic session, conducted by Dr. Amulya Kumar Singh, was inspiring, encouraging participants to aim high. The cultural evening, hosted by the Uttarakhand and Jharkhand contingents, was a delightful blend of performances that left the audience enthralled and strengthened inter-state bonds. Day four started with yoga and drill practice, as usual. The academic session was led by Col. Kamesh Kumar, who emphasized the importance of discipline and resilience in life. The evening saw Uttarakhand's contingent presenting a special skit on the Chipko Movement, which highlighted the state's environmental heritage and received widespread appreciation.

The fifth day was marked by improved coordination during drill sessions, as participants honed their parade routines. The academic session by Dr. K.K. Singh (IPS) was impactful, focusing on the qualities of leadership and responsibility. The day ended with an exciting cultural evening that brought together diverse talents and creativity. The sixth day was yet another blend of yoga, drill practice, and an engaging academic session. Rituraj Sahni provided valuable insights into perseverance and service, inspiring everyone to contribute to society meaningfully. The cultural evening continued to mesmerize the audience with vibrant performances from different states.

Day seven was dedicated to enhancing drill routines and further cultural bonding. The academic session provided participants with enriching experiences, while the evening's cultural performances maintained the spirit of unity and diversity. On the eighth day, excitement filled the air as drill trials for boys and cultural trials for girls began. The participants displayed remarkable skill and enthusiasm, aiming to qualify for the final performances. The ninth day saw drill trials for girls and cultural trials for boys. With each participant striving for perfection, the day was filled with energy and determination. The trials showcased the extraordinary talent and dedication of the teams. The final day of the camp was marked by the valedictory ceremony. Certificates and medals were distributed to participants in recognition of their hard work and dedication. Distinguished guests, including Vice Chancellor Vishnu Priya Sir, Shri Girdhar Upadhyay, and Jay Bhagwan Sir, applauded the efforts of the contingents and encouraged them to uphold the values of NSS. The 10-day NSS Pre-Republic Day Camp at BIT, Patna, was an unforgettable experience. It fostered discipline, cultural exchange, and personal growth, leaving a lasting impression on all participants. The Uttarakhand team, led by Dr. Deepa Singh, took pride in representing their state and upholding the NSS motto: "Not Me, But You."
