DETAILS OF THE FAREWELL AND OTHER PROGRAMMES HELD FOR THE TEACHING FACULTY (2024-25)

It is customary on the part of the Staff Club to organize Farewell Programmes for faculty members on the occasion of their retirement from the active service, or getting transferred to another government college, or who on being promoted to principalship have to leave the college fraternity. A prior invitation is forwarded to such individuals, and as per their own availability to spare time, are requested to be accompanied by their consort. Every effort is made to make the occasion memorable. The other occasion remains, when individuals get transferred to the alma mater from other college, and thereby build upon the base of the fraternity.

The Year 2022-23 remains pivotal for the simple fact that while few faculty members attained superannuation, a number of faculties got transferred to the alma mater, thus improving upon the membership. The details are underneath;

One of the good practices carried out by the Staff Association members, is to gift a Book, both to those getting superannuated from active services, as well as to those who join the fraternity.

Year 2023-24

The staff club of MBPG College works not only to as a celebration club of receiving and parting new members on the staff but, it also serves as a conduit for bringing about a positive contribution in the times of need to the staff of MBPG and outside, wherever there is a need. In the light of the above the staff club had contributed a sum of 50000/- INR towards medical aid of Dr Ravish Tripathi, Govt PG College, Rudrapur for his wife's ailment.

On September 05, 2023 a farewell and welcome event was organized by the staff club to welcome the newly transferred staff from other colleges and to give sendoff to the faculty who by an act of transfer were sent to other colleges. Prof Kailash Chandra Kaloni, Prof Rashmi Pant, Prof Chandrawati Joshi, Prof H S Bhakuni were present for the farewell. Mementoes were given away as a token of acknowledgement of their work. Refreshments were served.

Holi celebrations were done on 23rd of March. Tara Joshi ji, a local folk singer of Kumauni songs was invited for the event. Faculty members enjoyed the festival of colours with songs and dances. They also sang Khadi Holi, a Kumauni way of Holi celebration. Gujhiyas and local cuisines were served to the staff and students of Bed who fervently participated in it.

Staff club, MB PG College has been conducting events like welcome and farewell parties for the transferred candidates since decades. The club, though unofficial, ensures to be a conduit in maintaining a healthy and amicable ambience for the staff club members from time to time by throwing get together and meetings for the outgoing and new faculty members for every session. This session hasn't been different. Get together parties were organized on the following occasions and dates.

On 07th of September 2024, farewell party for the outgoing faculty members namely, Dr Rekha Joshi, Dr S N Sidh, Dr Manju Paneru was given whereas, 22 new faculty members, who joined the college in the current session by an act of transfer were welcomed. A few names from the freshly transferred are Dr Ganga Tamang, Dr Deepa, Dr R K Mishra, Dr Ritu Mittal and others. They were gifted books, plants and mementoes as a token of appreciation.

Prof Saroj Verma retired on 31st of December, 2024 after a four decade of service. She was given a tumultuous farewell whereby nearly everyone within the college participated.

On 30th of April Prof Neeta Pande, Botany retired from active service. She was also given a warm and teary farewell by the staff club. Farewell remains one of the most loved memories of any employee. So, care had been taken to make the event as grand and eventful as the resources and time allow. Refreshments and other niceties have become the high points of such programs.
