At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

All questions in this paper carry equal marks.

Answer two questions.

- 1) The role and image of the artist have changed radically over the years.
Discuss this in relation to named artists and their work.
- 2) The driving need for solace and catharsis often galvanises artists into action.
Discuss this in relation to named artists and their work.
- 3) There is a paradigm shift in the rising significance played by a viewer in the appreciation of contemporary art. Do you agree?
- 4) Does self-portraiture reveal or conceal the identity of the artist? Refer to the work of named artists to support your argument.
